Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land

Proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof ~ Leviticus 25:10a

Liberty is a scriptural concept. Christ came to set us free, to give us liberty from sin and death. He leaves us in the world to bear witness to Him, to be salt and light, a city on a hill, a beacon to a world in darkness.

Churches used to be the largest buildings in the community and were usually set on a hill. The size and location symbolized the vital role the church played in the community. Never were American churches more influential than during the American Revolution. Pastors and Christians were at the forefront of the Revolution because they understood the dangers of tyranny, the depravity of man and God's role for government, to punish the bad and reward the good so we can "lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and holiness." (I Tim. 2:1)

Thanks to their brave sacrifices, we can live peaceful lives according to our Christian faith. Unless we live out our Christianity in the public sphere, however, we're going to lose that liberty entirely. We'll lose our influence, our saltiness, in the community and our light will be squelched by the world's opposing message. Someone is impacting and influencing your community. Is it your church or is it the local Planned Parenthood, Gay-Straight Alliance, Wicca group or drug lord? The world's message is one of bondage, but we drown it out when we proclaim liberty throughout the land. The famous Liberty Bell, inscribed with Lev. 25:10, is a poignant illustration of the fact that both spiritual and civil liberty are God-given and not to be taken for granted. As we celebrate this July 4th, let's remember our Source of liberty and our commission to be salt and light in our communities.

Yet Another MSC Update

UW abortionist Caryn Dutton is leaving to take a position at Harvard Medical School. Dutton, who performed abortions at the Madison Planned Parenthood, was one of the key authors of the UW plan to provide late, second-trimester abortions at the Madison Surgery Center (MSC). UW insists Dutton's resignation will not change its plans to provide the heinous abortions, but documents obtained by Pro-Life Wisconsin reveal that public pressure is damaging UW's image and bottom line.

Helping You Decide

by Eric Skelton, WFC's Marriage & Family Ministry Director

The summer and early fall months are the busiest wedding months of the year. In order to help pastors and churches prepare couples as they move towards their big day, we're releasing an exciting new resource called Helping You Decide.

One day my pastor and I were discussing cohabitation. I was sharing with him some of the latest research regarding cohabiting couples. Like me, he was stunned by the sheer weight of evidence against cohabitation, especially given the explosion of couples choosing this form of union. "Boy, I don't think couples know this stuff," he said. "Do you have some kind of brochure with this information in it that I could hand out to couples?"

That little question started a nine-month writing project that culminated in the booklet, Helping You Decide, A Look at Sexual Relationships Before Marriage.

Helping You Decide is filled with facts, figures, and most importantly, God's Word. It is a great tool for pastors, mentors, and counselors to help them open up the discussion of sexual relations before marriage. Written as a persuasive piece, the book's goal is to help couples seek God's direction in moving to, or staying in, a pure, pre-marital relationship.

We are excited to announce the book is now available for order. Pastors, mentors, and counselors can use the book as a basis for discussing tough, pre-marital issues and to encourage couples to come into obedience to God regarding their pre-marital sexual relationships. Our goal is to get it in the hands of pastors for peak wedding months. Many hands contributed to this project, and I am grateful to them all. I trust the Lord will use it for His Glory.
