How To Access, Track or Print a Bill

On home page of legislative web site (www.legis.wi.gov) go to box on left side of screen: Request text and history of legislative proposals. Select either Assembly or Senate. From dropdown menu under Proposal Type select Act, Bill, or Joint Resolution. Under Proposal Number enter proposal number. From dropdown menu under Session, select the session in which the proposal was enacted. For example, to access Senate Bill 11 in the 2011 Regular Session, highlight Senate, select Bill under Proposal Type, enter 11 under Proposal Number, and select 2011 Regular Session from dropdown menu under Session. Click Submit. You may then print bill history and link to bill text and print it. (You can also look up bills from previous sessions in the same way.)

Tips for Effective Lobbying

- 1. Anyone can lobby. You can write a letter, call or meet with a legislator on an issue, a bill or a problem that requires legislative action. Only a person paid to represent another person or an organization is considered a lobbyist.
- 2. Start early. If you are interested in a specific bill, communicate with your legislator while the bill is still in committee, if possible. Know what you want done. Are you trying to start a bill? Stop one? Amend one?
- 3. You can lobby in person in Madison. Legislators generally spend Tuesday through Thursday in Madison and the other days in their districts. Always call for an appointment to be safe. Let the legislator know what you want to discuss. Personal contact is warm, direct, and conducive to explaining complex statistics, charts or documents. It may, however, take a long time to arrange and may involve such inconveniences as extensive travel or time off from work.
- 4. You can also lobby by phone or by mail. Calling your legislator is quick, flexible, and inexpensive as most legislators have toll-free numbers. The toll-free Legislative Hotline is (800) 362-9472. A follow-up letter or email can provide written material that helps build a solid file of information for the legislator. (See How To Write An Effective Letter or Email on pages 31-32.)
- 5. Work with a legislator's staff. Staff develop expertise in certain areas for their legislator. Because their schedules are more flexible, they can often spend more time working with you to solve a problem or to figure out the best way for you to explain it to the legislator.
- 6. Be factual. Don't exaggerate. Never lie. Every issue has pros and cons. Don't try to cover them up.

Tips for Effective Lobbying (cont'd)

- 7. Treat the legislator with dignity and respect. Don't threaten or offer rewards.
- 8. The more people you speak for, the more impact you'll have. Lobbyists are paid to do this. Other examples might be officers of organizations who speak for their members, ad hoc spokesmen, or people who circulate petitions on an issue.
- 9. A constituent has more impact than someone from outside the legislator's district. Legislators' constituents are very important to them. They know that constituents who contact them probably vote at election time.

General Guidelines for Involvement

People can affect the legislative process if they follow procedures and put in the necessary effort. Here are some general guidelines to help you get involved in the legislative process.

- 1. Find out the names of your state Senator and Representative. On www.legis.wi.gov click on Who Represents Me? in the center column of the home page. You may also call your local public library, city, or town hall for the names of your legislators and then refer to Wisconsin Family Council's 2011-2012 Legislative Directory for their contact information.
- 2. Stay tuned to the legislative process. Get acquainted with legislation by watching newscasts, listening to the radio, reading a paper, and by receiving information from Wisconsin Family Council. Note the title, name, or number of legislation on an issue that interests you.
- 3. Get a copy of the bill. Ask your legislator to send you a copy of the bill, or call Wisconsin Family Council at (888) 378-7395. You may also print out a copy of the bill from the legislative web site. (See How To Access, Track or Print a Bill, p. 27.)
- 4. Study the bill. Look for both negative and positive aspects of the bill and its possible effects on you or a group you represent. Be prepared to clearly explain your views.
- 5. Call, write, or meet with your legislator about the bill. For more information, read the sections How To Write an Effective Letter or Email (pages 31-32) and Tips for Effective Lobbying (page 27).
- 6. Attend a public hearing on the bill, if one is called. Some local newspapers print notices of hearings. The Legislative Hotline (800-362-9472) and the legislative web site (www.legis.wi.gov) have listings of public hearings. The following section contains more information.

How To Make Appearances at Public Hearings

Many bills receive public hearings throughout the legislative session. Appearances by lay witnesses will often impact the ultimate outcome of a bill and are often more effective than those of the paid lobbyists who appear before the committees time after time. A lay witness speaks as one who is directly affected by the proposal being considered, or who has special knowledge of the subject, or who represents the viewpoint of many citizens who share the same circumstances. For an effective presentation, keep the following points in mind:

- 1. Verify the date, time and room number of the hearing by calling the Legislative Hotline at (800) 362-9472 or (608) 266-9960 in Madison.
- 2. Obtain the names of the members of the committee that will be hearing the bill. Refer to pages 22-25 for a listing of Joint, Senate and Assembly committees. The State of Wisconsin Blue Book has background information on legislators that may be helpful. (Request a complimentary copy of the current Blue Book from one of your state legislators.) You can also look up legislators at www.legis.wi.gov.
- 3. Arrive promptly. Many hearing rooms are small and may fill up early. Room numbers in the Capitol indicate the floor number and a direction (e.g., Room 421 S is on the fourth floor in the south wing).
- 4. When you arrive, fill out a registration form. Indicate your name, address, and whom (if anyone) you are representing. Indicate if you are appearing in favor of the bill, in opposition to it, or for information only. You may register in favor of or in opposition to the bill even if you do not wish to speak.
- 5. Be prepared to wait. Other bills may be heard before the one you are interested in.
- 6. If you have traveled some distance to appear and will be returning home that day, note that on the registration form. The committee chairperson will often call such witnesses early in the hearing.
- 7. If possible, have a copy of the bill with you. You will then be able to refer to specific sections during your presentation or when answering questions. See page 27 for how to get a copy of the bill.

How To Make Appearances at Public Hearings (cont'd)

8. Be well prepared. Present points and thoughts logically. You may bring along copies of a written statement to leave with committee members. Speak on the most important points from your statement. If possible, practice your testimony beforehand with a friend or co-worker and ask him/her to critique it.

9. Identify yourself in your opening remarks and describe your business operation or association membership. Establish yourself as one qualified to speak on the matter either because it affects you directly or because you have expertise in this area.

10. Keep your presentation reasonably brief and to the point. Speak in a conversational manner. Emphasize the effects of the proposed legislation on your business or your association's members.

11. Do not assume that all committee members are familiar with all aspects of the bill; that is the purpose of the hearing. Review the specific provisions of the bill that concern you.

12. Do not repeat points made by a previous speaker. If you have something to add to what someone else has said, by all means do so. If not, simply note your agreement with the earlier speaker and move on to the rest of your presentation. To be effective, your presentation must be somewhat flexible. Pay attention to what other speakers are saying.

13. Do not attempt to answer questions for which you do not have answers or facts. It is better to offer to obtain answers and/or provide additional information after the hearing.

14. Be courteous. Address the chairperson and committee members each time you speak or answer a member's question. Remain calm—don't let committee members fluster you by their questions or comments.

15. Finish with a brief summary. Tie up any loose ends and emphasize the important points. You can also clarify any answers to questions committee members have asked.

16. At the end of your testimony, thank the committee for the opportunity to appear. You will leave on a positive note.

17. If you promise to provide additional material to committee members after the hearing, do so as soon as possible. This will confirm your credibility as a witness.

How To Write an Effective Letter or Email

Your legislators need to hear from you. Letters or emails are the main form of voter contact and the primary source of constituency views.

Here are a few guidelines for writing an effective letter/email to your state or federal legislators.

- 1. Write on your personal or business letterhead and sign your name over your typed signature at the end of your message. Handwritten letters are acceptable but must be legible.
- 2. Be sure your exact return address is on the letter and in the email.
- 3. Identify your subject clearly. State the name of the legislation you are writing about. Include the bill number if you know it.
- 4. State your reason for writing. Explain how the issue would affect you, your family, business or profession—or what effect it could have on your state or community. Be specific and brief (no more than two pages). Support your position with reliable facts and figures. Clearly state whether you are for or against the bill or one of its features.
- 5. When given the opportunity to send a “form” letter/email, take time to personalize it. Doing so strengthens your message.
- 6. Be reasonable. Don’t ask for the impossible. Offer an alternative if you think it is necessary.
- 7. Do not threaten. That will harm your cause.
- 8. Ask your legislator to let you know his/her position on the issue and how he/she plans to vote on the matter. As a constituent, you’re entitled to know your legislator’s position.
- 9. Try to write your position on a bill while it is in committee. Legislators are usually more responsive to your appeal at that time rather than after the bill has already been approved by a committee. Sometimes, however, legislators may reserve judgment—and their vote—until they know the sentiment of their constituents.
- 10. In addition to your own legislators, you may write the chairperson or members of a committee holding hearings on legislation in which you are interested. However, remember that you have more influence with your own legislators than with any others. You may also write the Governor after both houses pass the bill if you want to influence his decision about signing the bill.

How to Write an Effective Letter or Email (cont'd)

11. Thank your legislator if his/her vote agrees with your position on an issue. Everyone appreciates a complimentary letter—and remembers it. On the other hand, if a vote is contrary to your position, courteously let him/her know that as well. He/she will remember that, too.

12. Remember that courtesy is appropriate at all times. You are trying to inform your legislator about the impact of the proposed legislation, and he/she will appreciate your help, if it is courteously given.

Wisconsin Family Council is pleased to make this 2011-2012 Legislative Directory available. We trust you find the information in this publication helpful as you participate in our great representative form of government. This directory is one way we can help you connect to your government.

Since 1986, Wisconsin Family Council has been advancing Judeo-Christian principles and values in Wisconsin. We have largely done this by informing Wisconsin citizens, policymakers and churches about the important pro-family legislative and cultural issues so that they can be involved in strengthening and preserving marriage, family, life and liberty in our state.

Wisconsin Family Council is supported solely by the gifts and contributions of concerned citizens and churches.

We are grateful for those who consistently support this work. You, too, can invest in your family's future by investing in Wisconsin Family Council. Contact us for more details.

Wisconsin Family Council is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization. All gifts are fully tax-deductible to the extent of the law.
