Pro-Family PAC Announces Endorsements for Judicial Candidates
Mark Gundrum, Waukesha County Circuit Court, &
Judge Ed Leineweber, District IV Court of Appeals, receive endorsements

Madison—Wisconsin Family Action Political Action Committee (WFA PAC) announced today that it has endorsed two judicial candidates for the upcoming Spring General Election on Tuesday, April 6.

Mark Gundrum, candidate for the Waukesha County Circuit Court, and Judge Ed Leineweber, candidate for District IV Court of Appeals, have both been endorsed for their respective races.

“Rep. Mark Gundrum and Judge Ed Leineweber have both evidenced a profound respect for judicial restraint—the quality that keeps a judge focused on applying the law, not making the law,” said Julaine Appling, WFA PAC director. “We believe a fair and impartial judiciary is critical to our system of government. Judges need to rule consistent with the law, not their personal agenda, whatever that might be.”

Mark Gundrum is currently serving as a representative in the state Assembly and is challenging incumbent Judge Richard Congdon. Ed Leineweber is presently a judge on the Richland County Circuit Court and is opposed by Brian Blanchard, who is the Dane County District Attorney.
