Pro-Family PAC Endorses Judge Paul Reilly in District II Court of Appeals

Madison—Wisconsin Family Action Political Action Committee (WFA PAC) announced today that it has endorsed Judge Paul Reilly for the open seat on Wisconsin’s District II Court of Appeals for the upcoming Spring General Election on Tuesday, April 6.

District II Court of Appeals includes the counties of Calumet, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Kenosha, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Racine, Sheboygan, Walworth, Washington, Waukesha, and Winnebago.

“Judge Paul Reilly has the most important quality necessary for a judge—a commitment to the role of a judge as interpreting and applying the law as it is written, not making law from the bench. He brings both experience and respect for the law and the separation of powers to this key judicial position,” said Julaine Appling, WFA PAC director.

Judge Reilly is currently a judge on the Waukesha County Circuit Court. Also running for District II Court of Appeals is Judge Linda Van de Water.
