Pro-Family PAC-Endorsed Candidates Victorious

Madison—Wisconsin Family Action Political Action Committee (WFA PAC) is pleased to announce that two of its endorsed candidates won in the Assembly District 60 and Assembly District 94 special election primaries last night.

Assembly District 60 Special Election Primary

Duey Stroebel (R)

Assembly District 94 Special Election Primary

John Lautz (R)

Both candidates face an opponent in the May 3 Special General Election.

“We’re thrilled that these pro-family candidates are running for State Assembly, and we wish them well in the next four weeks as they prepare for the Special Election on May 3,” said Julaine Appling, Director of WFA PAC. “Now more than ever, we need principled lawmakers in our State Capitol, individuals who understand the true nature of liberty and who will fight for the independence and integrity of Wisconsin’s families. We believe these candidates fit that description, and we encourage constituents to get involved in their campaigns.”
