Statewide Pro-Family PAC Endorses Walker and Neumann for Governor

Madison—Today Wisconsin Family Action Political Action Committee (WFA PAC) announced the endorsement of two candidates for governor, Scott Walker and Mark Neumann.

“We are proud to endorse Mark Neumann and Scott Walker for Wisconsin’s 2010 gubernatorial race,” said Julaine Appling, Director of the WFA PAC. “Both of these candidates have an incredibly strong history of standing for marriage, family, life and liberty. Wisconsin is in desperate need of a governor who will protect and promote our most valuable resource – the family – both personally and publicly. Walker and Neumann both fit that description, and we’re excited for this November and the opportunity for Wisconsin to elect a new governor.

“We wish each of them the best as they campaign this summer and encourage people to support them and their campaigns.”
