Pro-Family PAC Announces New Endorsements for State Assembly and State Senate

Madison—Wisconsin Family Action Political Action Committee (WFA PAC) announced today another round of endorsed candidates for the following State Assembly and State Senate races:

Assembly District 35 – Jeremy Cordova
Assembly District 59 – Daniel LeMahieu
Assembly District 62 – Chris Wright
Assembly District 72 – John Lamb
Assembly District 99 – Don Pridemore

Senate District 21 – Van Wanggaard
Senate District 21 – Bob Gulan
Senate District 23 – Terry Moulton

“Wisconsin voters are blessed this election cycle with a number of solid pro-life, pro-family candidates,” said Julaine Appling, Director of the WFA PAC. “We are proud to endorse these eight candidates, all of whom either already have a strong pro-family record or who would bring pro-family leadership to the State Legislature. WFA PAC is looking for candidates who will champion marriage, family, life and liberty in the State Legislature and we believe these candidates answer that call.

“These State Senate and Assembly candidates have each committed to a long, grueling campaign in pursuit of a position of service to the people of Wisconsin. We wish each of them the best as they campaign this summer and encourage people to support them and their campaigns.”
